

□ Part One

In the name of God

As long as there is oppression and disbelief, there is a struggle, as long as there is a struggle, we are. Imam Khomeini.

The 13th of Aban contains three great historical events.

Exile of Imam Khomeini to Turkey in 1343.

-The brutal massacre of revolutionary students in 1978 by the Shah's regime.

-The conquest of the spy nest by students with revolutionary insight in 1979 can be called a great step towards anti-arrogance and anti-American resistance.

Capturing the spy nest can be called the first step in modern history, anti-arrogant discourse.

The history of America's enmity, this great devil against the people of Iran began on August 19, 1943 and his malice continues to this day and does not stop oppressing.

The whole Islamic Ummah must block the way of penetration of this global enemy as much as possible and try with all its might to destroy it.

□ Part II

Considering the recent evils and insulting the most perfect and freedom-loving human being in the world, arrogance and the West showed an even poorer face than before.

We declare to the world that we will stand up for the freedom and prosperity of all nations until the end of our lives and we will fight against oppression and oppression following our beloved Prophet.

And the end for the pious.
